

USA TODAY (LIFE SECTION D)

www.usatoday.com

USA TODAY

Life
SECTION D

Thursday, December 27, 2007

Lifeline

For entertainment news, visit the Lifeline Live!

$65 million

National Treasure: Book Christmas opening week $10 million more than opening weekend. The $65 million best showing for star Nicolas Cage.

Box office	Film	Weekend
1	National Treasure: Book of Secrets	$65.4
2	The Legend	$47.7
3	Apes and the Chimpanzee	$38.5
4	Charlie Wilson's War	$15.9
5	Secretary	$13.0
6	Alarm vs. Predator: Reborn	$9.5
7	21: Follow the	$9.3
8	The Golden Compass	$6.9
9	Juno	$6.8
10	Walk Hard: The Deaky Star Story	$6.3

USA TODAY

Other calendar trends for 2008:

By Maria Puente
USA TODAY

A recent survey found that women are more likely than men to use paper calendars.

“Even if women use an electronic planner, most are supplementing it with paper calendars and lists to stay on top of all of their tasks, says Nina Korelitz Matza, co-owner of survey sponsor Whomi, a time-management paper accessories brand.

Maybe not coincidentally, “Mom” organizer calendars remain strong sellers; More Time Moms Family Organizer 2008 Pocket Wall Calendar ($14.99) was No. 1 Wednesday on Calendars.com. ■

Education
Tragedy at Virginia Tech leaves hard, 11D

Education

Tragedy at Virginia Tech leaves hard, 11D

Education

Tragedy at Virginia Tech leaves hard, 11D